Digital twins from Matterport visualise your spaces in different ways!

From a schematic 2D floor plan to a fully immersive 3D dollhouse. Whether on your website, on a marketing portal, as a QR code poster at the construction site or sent personally as an eMail link:

- Let your customers interact freely. And experience the tours virtually -

Whether you stage commercial or residential properties, work in building insurance or facility management, Meta Venues offer you a versatile tool to add value to your business and enhance your team performance.

How can you fit many viewings into one appointment?

Attract prospects and meet new clients by integrating the tour into virtual meetings

How do you avoid the feeling of anonymity with virtual offers?

Show a selection of locations together with your prospects in a virtual tour. Create real time contacts to customers online

How does this benefit Home-Owners?

Meta Venues virtual tour relieves homeowners of tedious duties! Present your property without breaking a sweat!

Without an appointment, without traveling, without waiting, without cleaning up and reciting everything umpteen times, you can arrange viewing appointments online, and your customers will still see every corner of your house. And should they want to, this most complete presentation can be repeated as often as they like.
